

How To Care For Your Cat- ESL Worksheet

Instructions- read all the instructions before you start.

- Read the How To Care For Your Cat sheet.
- Underline words you do not know.
- Find out the meaning of the words by using context or checking in a dictionary.
- Turn over the How To Care For Your Cat sheet.
- Tell your partner 5 facts you can remember about caring for cats.
- Write down the facts your partner tells you about caring for cats.
- Turn over the How To Care For Your Cat sheet again.
- Check the facts your partner told you.
- Correct any mistakes.
- Complete the exercises below.

Exercise 1

The table below contains verbs from the sheet; complete the table with the different verb forms. (10 points)

Infinitive	Past simple	Past participle
To stroke
	Get
		Destroyed
To choose
	Slept

Exercise 2

The table below contains adjectives from the sheet; complete the table by adding an adjective with the opposite meaning. (10 points)

Adjective	Opposite
Glossy
Costly
Unwanted
Dirty
Cold
Fresh
Elderly
Regular Hungry
Strong

Exercise 3

Did you notice that in all of the instruction sentences the first word was the verb in the present tense? This is a common way to write instructions. It helps make it clear what you must do. Using this sentence structure write 5 instruction for cat owners. (10 points)

One is done as an example.....

- Groom your cat regularly.
-
-
-
-
-

Exercise 4

You need to rewrite the section titles on the How To Care For Your Cat sheet. The new title must begin with "How to..." and explain what is in the section. There are some examples to help you. (10 points)

Old Title	New Title
Where Your Cat Lives
Food & Water	How to feed your cat.
Human Company
Health
Vaccinations
Grooming	How to keep your cat clean.
Breeding

Total points ____ / 40 = ____ %

